Membership of the Society is open to everyone who has matriculated at Oxford or Cambridge University, to all members of either University, and to those who have either been appointed to a post or who have followed a recognised course of study at either University.

The Society organises a range of social, sporting and cultural events in Hong Kong and keeps in touch with developments and needs of the two Universities and visiting academics. Annual membership from 1 April to 31 March each year or any part thereof is HK$220 through Autopay or HK$250 by cheque. The fee is waived for full-time students.

Tick if you are a full time student and give the anticipated year of completion of your studies:
